

Should Your Church Consider Having an Experiencing God Weekend Event?

Is there a need for God to revive and renew His people?

Does the Church need a fresh encounter with God?

Is the Church busy with religious activities rather than God-sized assignments from The Father?

Is your Body doing things “for God” instead of God working through His Body to accomplish the things that He alone can do?

Is there little evidence of the power of the Holy Spirit working in and through the Body?

Would you describe the Church as consciously “Knowing and Doing the Will of God?”

Are the Church members living out God’s call on their lives?

Is your Church intentionally seeking to help members grow spiritually through transforming Word-centered studies?
