SEMINAR INFORMATION:

The Man God Uses: Tom Blackaby

This session encourages Christian men to examine their encounters with the Father, and to follow His will in all areas of life—at home, at work, in church, and in their community.

Jesus Encounters Women: Kim Blackaby

Some of the most significant truths taught by Jesus were revealed in His encounters with women. What does Jesus have to say to women today? What is He calling us to and calling us from? How does the Jesus revealed to Mary and Martha, the Samaritan woman, Mary Magdalene and others reveal Himself to us today?

Transforming Hearts for Revival and Harvest: Claude King

How do you join God in turning the hearts of His people back to Him? Identify the connections between a first love for Christ, personal and corporate revival, and spiritual harvest. Learn about ways and practical tools to guide your people toward revival and into a spiritual harvest.

The Family God Uses: Dr. Tom Blackaby & Kim Blackaby

Every Christian desires to serve the Lord, but historically it was through families that God brought His blessings and impacted the world. This seminar looks at the biblical precedence for God using families and God's heart desire to strengthen and encourage families today to have an impact in His Kingdom.

Are You Neglecting It?: Will Graham

Prayer is often one of the most neglected practices of, not only the church, but also for so many Christians. In this Seminar we will investigate the historical link between prayer and spiritual awakening, the theological makeup of prayer, and on how we can pray more effectually in our own personal lives.

Worship That Leads to Revival: Rick Stone

Mention the word “worship” and you had better settle in for a lengthy discussion! Opinions are numerous, styles are varied, and expectations may differ. Find out how true worship in the 21st century can lead the people of God to a revival of holiness, separation, and obedience.

Unlimiting God: Richard Blackaby

God's power and love have no limits. This seminar will inspire you to aim for a new level of walking with God and challenge you to reach new heights in your spiritual life that you never dreamed were possible.

A God Centered Church: Mel Blackaby

If you've almost given up hope that church can be a place where hearts are truly united, prayers are answered, and people are readily open to God's direction, come and discover the way you always knew church could be.

Living a Life That Matters: Mike Blackaby

This seminar will examine how young adults can live their lives in a way that is fulfilling, exciting, and rewarding. God never wastes a life. He always knows how to use our lives to impact eternity.

Experiencing God Around the Kitchen Table: Marilyn Blackaby & Gina Blackaby

Women today have very multi-faceted lives in which they must balance their marriage, children, careers, and ministry opportunities. This seminar will help you to better understand how God is faithful in your life no matter what struggles you may face. Learn to develop a stronger relationship with the Lord that will lead to success in every area of your life.

Pastors Lunch: Friday Feb. 27 at 11:45 p.m.

A challenging and enriching time for pastors and their spouses with two universally esteemed Christian leaders: Henry Blackaby and Anne Graham Lotz. Participants will be inspired to serve as instruments of revival for their churches. There is an $8.00 per person fee to attend this lunch.
